

HOPE FEST

2-5 APRIL 2010

Christians, as God's people, should live holy lives because God is holy.
The moment we accept Christ into our lives,
we automatically have positional righteousness.
But experientially, we are being sanctified in our daily walk with God.
We have to allow God to change us gradually as we walk with Him daily.
It is a process that requires a lifetime to complete.
